

ALL OVER A LETTER

The Town of Ashley Thrown Into Mild Excitement
BY A NAUGHTY LOVE EPISTLE

Sent to a Married Man and a Preacher—
News in About the Great State of Michigan.

ASHLEY, Jan. 15.—The devil's fun keeps up in Ashley. His satanic majesty got in his cloven foot into a winter pasturage of 150 brand new brands plucked from the burning under the transmute energies of two ministers and a gospel chorister. The triplets, who have charged high crime to each other, will not retract, and there is a five-page, both sides, ten in all, love letter—all love, and from a loving maiden—that got intercepted before it got to the addressed, a married man with sacerdotal robes. That's how the row began. All this, and a local option campaign on, too, with Bro. Willis bearing down with his panoply of sin. Meanwhile the new converts alibackling, and nothing is being done. Sober heads, and there are a few left in Ashley, vote to fire the whole shooting match and send them where their usefulness is not known. This is in Ashley, where the bond matter is still in the courts.

LONG IN THE MORGUE.

A Corpse Much Quarreled Over Placed in the Grave.

MEMPHIS, Mich., Jan. 15.—The city health officer took a hand in the case of John McLean, the pauper whom the hospital authorities and the Menominee county poor commissioner have been quarreling over, and ordered the body buried. The dead man had been lying in the morgue since December 23.

Charged With Crookedness.

LANSING, Mich., Jan. 15.—Gov. Winans has ordered the attorney general to investigate charges of official misconduct preferred against William R. Ritts, prosecuting attorney of Schoolcraft county. In a general way charges are made that Ritts has refused to entertain and investigate complaints against keepers of houses of ill fame; that he has vainly refused to prosecute saloon-keepers for violations of the liquor laws and that he has, in some cases, refused to prosecute criminals. The investigation is to be conducted before the circuit court commissioner or the probate judge of Schoolcraft county.

Biggest Babe in Michigan.

THREE RIVERS, Mich., Jan. 15.—Chas. Hoey, a farmer near Centerville, has a 1-year-old daughter who is a corker in her way. She is not only above the average weight for one of her age, but measures thirty-four inches around the waist and weighs eighty-seven pounds. The other day she took hold of a one hundred pound coil of galvanized fence wire and, after instruction from her father, carried it across the barn. St. Joe county is prepared to back her as the champion heavy-weight lifting baby of the feminine persuasion in Michigan.

Death in the Forest.

THREE RIVERS, Mich., Jan. 15.—The sudden death of Farmer Tazo, who resided six miles east of Three Rivers, is reported here. He went with a team and sleigh to a grove on one of the three or four farms he owns. He had not got one of a log on the sled and had gone to the other end with a crowbar in his hand. He was probably attempting to raise that end when he fell over onto the log dead. Heart trouble was probably the cause of his demise. He had been warned against attempts at heavy lifting.

Quarreling Partners.

MUSKEGON, Mich., Jan. 15.—A queer case on the part of John O. Olson, is the swearing out of a complaint against Arndt Anderson for his arrest on a charge of stealing $450. The case is the result of a quarrel between partners. Olson paid Anderson the $450 September 30 last for a half interest in the meat market business. He says Anderson claimed to have outstanding accounts to the amount of $1,000, whereas there was really not $200 or $300, and resorted to criminal proceedings to get even.

Death of a Freak.

BROWN, Mich., Jan. 15.—Mrs. Hannah Bunnell, largest woman in Branch county, if not in Michigan, died here yesterday. For several years she had traveled throughout the country as a "freak," exhibiting in museums and advertised as the "largest woman in America." She weighed 358 pounds. A casket of special size was ordered from Kalamazoo by telegraph for her remains.

Thirteenth Michigan Reunion.

KALAMAZOO, Jan. 15.—The twenty-seventh reunion of the old Thirteenth Michigan infantry is being held here today. The attendance is very fair, considering the ravages of the grip, which have kept some away. This regiment returned in August, 1865, with 150 of its original 225 men. Members are present from a number of states.

BURNED TO DEATH.

TWO LITTLE CHILDREN OF WILLIAM ALLEN
Met with a Sad Fate.
MILLBROOK, Mich., Jan. 15.—Two children of William Allen, Jr., were playing back of a coach, over which a lamp hung. The lamp fell down and broke. Their clothing became saturated with oil. There was no one near except a 13-year-old girl, who tried to cover them with bedding. Both were so severely burned that they died. One was aged 3 years and 6 months and the other 2 years and 6 months.

Death of a Pioneer Publisher.

ADRIAN, Mich., Jan. 15.—R. W. Ingalls the first publisher in Lenawee, died Thursday morning, aged 83. He came from New York state in 1834 and began publication of the Adrian Gazette and Lenawee County Republican (neutral) but soon changed the name to the Watch Tower, with Jacksonian democratic principles. He was state printer in 1850.

Death of a Fat Woman.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Jan. 15.—Mrs. Hannah Bunnell, the fat woman who weighed over 350 pounds and was formerly with Forepaugh's circus, died Thursday near Brownson. She was but 41 years old and leaves two children.

He Will Come Back.

EDMUND, Mich., Jan. 15.—Sam McFarlane, treasurer of the local business men's association, who took $1,000 of the funds with him, is held in Ottawa, Ont., where he was arrested yesterday. Sheriff McCarthy has gone after him.

Met a Horrible Fate.
MILLBROOK, Mich., Jan. 15.—Two young children of William Allen, Jr., were horribly burned last night and died in a few minutes. Their clothing became saturated with oil from an overturned lamp and caught fire from an open stove.

Another Centenarian Dead.
THREE RIVERS, Mich., Jan. 15.—Mrs. Margaret Hummer, who was considered the oldest woman in the state, died at Parkville, Joseph county, yesterday. She was born in Pennsylvania in 1797, and was 104 years old.

Foiled With the Weapon.
HUBBARDSTON, Mich., Jan. 15.—A sad accident occurred here yesterday. Joseph Hodgins and several companions went out hunting, when one of them, pointing his gun at Hodgins, shot and killed him, thinking the gun was not cocked.

General State News.

The Mackinac straits are jammed with ice.
Mrs. Margaret Hummer died at Parkville, aged 104 years.
The Adrian distillery factory turns out 1000 pans a day.

There are nineteen different secret societies in Three Rivers.
There is much distress and suffering among the poor of Adrian.
J. D. Suoles, an old and respected citizen of Tecumseh, is dead.

The short course in progressive agriculture under the auspices of the state board of agriculture, is in session at Easthert.
A new postoffice has been established in Bennington township by the name of Sagerville, with Rollin Pond as postmaster.

A Laingsburg man sold 400 sheep to eastern parties recently. This is the largest flock of sheep ever sold out of Shiawassee county.
The first shipment of grain through the big new elevator at Benton Harbor, a cargo of 10,000 bushels of rye consigned to New York, was made on Monday.

Two young children of William Allen, Jr. of Millbrook, turned over a lamp while at play, and were severely burned that they died in a few hours.
Albert Granger, for fifty years a resident of Claytown township, died at his home Thursday morning of heart disease. He was a leading farmer and life-long democrat.

John Macrutek, a Bohemian, formerly of Menominee, was instantly killed in a lumber camp at Curtin, Wis., Thursday, by a falling tree striking him on the head.

Francis Olmstead, a prominent business man of Centerville for over a quarter of a century, died Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the grip after a sickness of but sixteen hours.
Leland has cause to feel proud of its boys. When they are not filling the school house stove pipe with dead roosters, they try their skill at running the old saw mill. They belong to the night force.

Michigan pensions—Albert O. Mann, John Butler, Joseph Parker, Leuben S. Crockett, James Smith. Additional—Harry Nauman, Alex. B. Harper, Randolph. Original, widows, etc.—Amelia A. Spalding.

A rocker weighing eight tons, on the mammoth pumping engine Michigan, at the Calumet and Hecla stamp mills at Lake Linden, broke Wednesday night. Auxiliary engines will do the pumping for the present.

The Kalamazoo Presbytery at its meeting at Three Rivers this week had upon its program the installation of the Rev. Emmet Rankin. It adjourned without doing it and Three Rivers Presbyterians are wearing two collars per day.

A Battle Creek man slipped down Tuesday evening, broke his New Year's resolution, and some of the sharp pieces penetrated the inner section of his hip pocket and somewhat further. This caused him to break another resolution and fire out words that weighed a pound apiece.

The human wolves who court the hater by felonious assaults upon young girls should go to Clair county, and Clair county females should emigrate. There were two convictions for this terrible crime in that circuit last term, and the judge gave each of them a five-year sentence.

Some Marshall youths went to a gaily show expecting to see something wicked and were disappointed. Managers of shows have found out that bad and indecent performances do not pay; and the hotelkeepers and hall owners have also discovered that the managers of such shows do not pay.

Charged With Burglary.
HANNAB, Mo., Jan. 15.—The grand jury has found a true bill against Lieut. James T. Dodge, charged with robbing Edward Donaher's store here several months ago. Lieut. Dodge is a nephew of Gail Hamilton and a cousin of Mrs. J. G. Blaine. He will be court-martialed as soon as the army can get possession of his person from the civil authorities.

Fluents at Pittsburgh.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 15.—The rivers continue to rise and will reach the danger line, but the river men do not look for a disastrous flood. The lowlands are already inundated, and residents of the north and south sides lying along the banks of the streams are preparing to move to higher ground.
